on beaches between Walvis Bay and Swakopmund and on all beaches north of Henties Bay.

- No driving is allowed in the Swakop River bed up to the Rössing Golf Club. Only limited concessionaires may operate there under tourism-specific MET permits. Quad bikes and other motorized bikes are strictly prohibited in the entire Swakop River.
- Bikes and vehicles may only access the dunes through the access corridors at Langstrand, Dolfynpark and Dune 7.

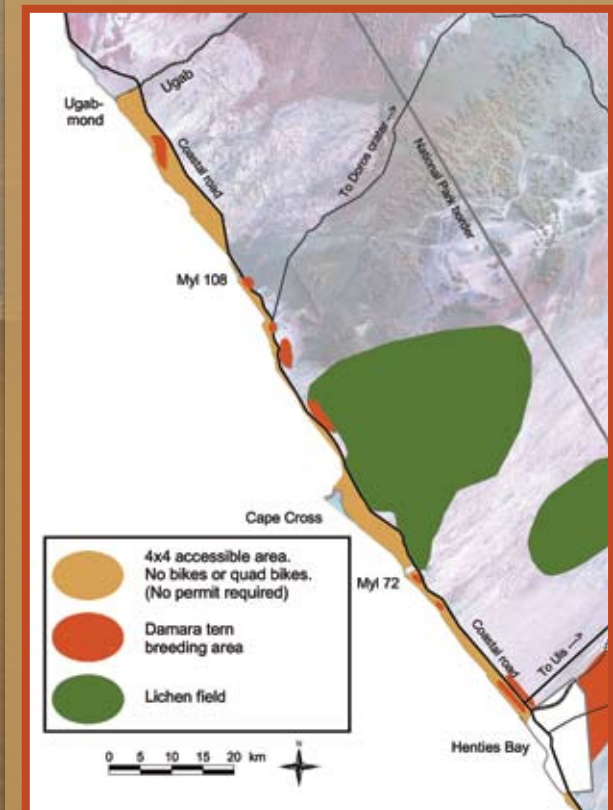

Area between Swakopmund and Henties Bay

They must stay within the demarcated access corridors.

- Quad and two-wheel bikes may ride west of the coastal road between Swakopmund and Henties Bay, only on existing well-used tracks. They may travel without a permit in the Omaruru River bed, only 5 km inland from the beach. No quad bikes and two-wheel bikes are allowed north of the Omaruru River, up to the Ugab River.
- Driving in any conservation area is strictly prohibited.

Drivers of any vehicle that can go off-road (4x4s, sedans, bakkies, beach buggies, quad or two-wheel bikes), need to adhere to the Off-road Rules of the Ministry of Environment and Tourism, when utilizing the off-road areas in the Central Namibian Coast area, between Sandwich Harbour and the Ugab River.

To drive in the specially demarcated off-road areas in the dunes between Swakopmund and Walvis Bay, off-roaders are required to obtain a free permit. (See the places at the back of the pamphlet.)

No driving is allowed in the conservation areas.

Be responsible, be informed and be aware.

Let's take care of our coast together and forever ...
