

Common Flora Species available in Namibia

Endemic to Namib Desert

Common name: Coastal Pelargonium - © A. Burke
Where they occur?
Southern Namib. It only grows in rocky habitats.

Common name: Crustose Lichens / Caloplaca elegantissima - © P. Tarr
Where they occur?
Central Namibia.

Common name: Crustose Lichens / Lecidella species - © P. Tarr
Where they occur?
Central Namib.

Endemic to Namib Desert

Common name: Didelta Carnosa - © A. Burke
Where they occur?
From Lüderitz to Northern Cape. It grows on sandy plains or rocky areas.

Endemic to Namib Desert

Common name: Dollar Bush - © R. Braby
Where they occur?
Everywhere along the coastline in the fog belt. It grows only on gravel plains.

Endemic to Namib Desert

Common name: Dune Bushman-grass - © A. Burke
Where they occur?
In dune fields of the Namib desert and strictly confined to mobile dunes.

Common name: Foliose Lichens / Xanthomaculina species - © N. Cadot
Where they occur?
Central Namib.

Common name: Kelp - © DLIST
Where they occur?
Everywhere along the coast.

Common name: Kuntze's brownanthus - © A. Burke
Where they occur?
From south of Walvis Bay to Southern Angola. It grows exclusively on sandy habitats.

Common name: Lithops rushiorum - © R. Braby
Where they occur?
In the Central and Northern Namib.

Endemic to Namibia

Common name: Nara! Melon - © DLIST
Where they occur?
In the dunes in particular in Central and Northern Namibia.

Common name: Pencil Bush - © N. Cadot
Where they occur?
Everywhere along the coastline in the fog belt. It grows only on gravel plains. This species is able to reverse transpiration absorbing water through the leaves and transporting it down to the roots.

Common name: Psilocaulon species - © N. Cadot

Where they occur?

.Everywhere along the coast.

Common name: Psilocaulon species - © P. Tarr

Where they occur?

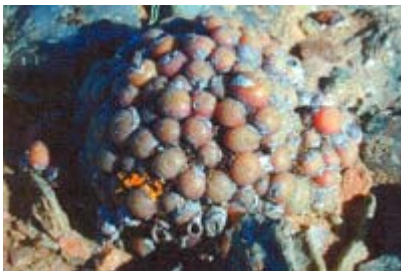

Everywhere along the coast.

Common name: Red fingers - © R. Braby

Where they occur?

In wetland areas. Leaves turn red in saline soils.

Common name: Rock Button Plant - © A. Burke

Where they occur?

Between Lüderitz and Northern Cape. It grows in rocky habitats.

Common name: Tamarisk - © A. Burke

Where they occur?

In dry riverbeds.

Endangered Flora Species available in Namibia

Endemic to Namibia

Common name: Window Plant or Fenestraria - © S. Rothmann

Where they occur?

In the Southern Namib. It grows mainly on sandy plain habitat but is occasionally found on gravel plains.

Endemic to Namibia

Common name: Lichen - © N. Cadot

Where they occur?

You will see it in particular on the road between Swakopmund and Henties Bay, close to Woltskasbaken.

Endemic to Southern Africa

Common name: Lithops rushiorum - © R. Braby

Where they occur?

In the Southern Namib.

Endemic to Namibia

Common name: Welwitschia Mirabilis - © N. Cadot

Where they occur?

From the Kuiseb River into southern Angola. They grow on gravel plains.